

DR. BENJAMIN SAN JOSE

is Assistant Professor of Japanese Studies and Political Science at the Ateneo de Manila University, Philippines. San Jose completed his doctorate degree in International Public Policy from the University of Tsukuba, Japan. His research interests include the political economy of Philippine migration and he is currently doing research on the role of migration industry in managing the Philippine-Japan migration corridor.

DR. JOCELYN CELERO

recently obtained her Ph. D. in International Studies at Waseda University-Graduate School of Asia-Pacific Studies, Tokyo, Japan. Her dissertation examined the transnational life trajectories of 1.5- and second- generation Japanese-Filipinos. She has taught in the Philippines and Japan for more than 10 years. She serves as Assistant Professor at the Asian Center, University of the Philippines Diliman.

DR. RON BRIDGET VILOG

is the current chair of the International Studies Department of De La Salle University. He obtained his PhD in International Development from Nagoya University, Japan. His latest publications, published in the Asia-Pacific Social Science Review, include "Perceived Discrimination in Ancestral Homeland Filipino Nikkeijins and the Dynamics of Migrant Resistance" (2012) and "The Paradox of Immigration Politics: Revisiting the Dynamics of Philippine Nikkeijin Labor Migration" (2014).

DR. REIKO OGAWA

Is Associate Professor at the Graduate School of Social Sciences, Chiba University, Japan. She is co-editor of (Palgrave Macmillan, 2018), and special guest editor for the issue, "Migration and Care Work" of the Asia Pacific Journal of Social Work and Development (2017). Her recent publications include "Demographic Change and Migration of Care Workers: State, Care Facilities and Migrants" (2016), "Globalization of Care in Japan and Korea" (2015, in Japanese), "Configuration of Migration and Long-Term Care in East Asia" (2014), "Globalization and Transformation of Care in Japan" (2014).

A FORUM & ROUNDTABLE

15 Feb 2018
1230 pm–430 pm
UP Asian Center, QC

Free and Open to the Public

MOVING CARE

Between Japan and the Philippines

POLICY, THEORY
& EXPERIENCE

READ
ABSTRACTS AND SIGN UP

bit.ly/movingcare

Asian Center
University of the Philippines