

WHAT IS #REMOTE LEARNING?

What is remote learning?

Courses in the First Semester AY 2020-2021 will be delivered remotely.

Remote Learning \neq Online Learning.
Remote learning may or may not be online.

TRADITIONAL

Teachers and Learners meet in a physical classroom at set times every day.

REMOTE LEARNING

Teachers and Learners are geographically or physically separated from each other. They do not meet in a physical classroom.

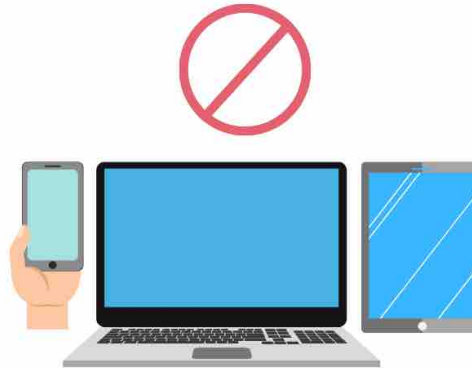

Remote Learning is synonymous with Distance Education.

Which type of learner are you?

Has a laptop/desktop computer/tablet/smartphone and stable internet access

Has a laptop/desktop computer/tablet/smartphone but no internet access

No laptop/desktop computer/tablet/smartphone and no internet access

Remote Learning has different modes of delivery to suit the needs of all types of learners.

Remote Learning is Resource-Based Learning – It involves use of education resources and various media.

Modes of delivery* in remote learning

SYNCHRONOUS (real-time)

- lectures, webinars and teleconferences using such platforms as Zoom, Google Meet

ASYNCHRONOUS (non-real-time)

- printed learning materials
- recorded lectures (audio or video)
- text-based (basic email, FB messenger, Viber group, etc.)
- online discussion boards in different platforms (UP's Learning Management Systems (e.g. UVLE, VLE), Canvas, Google Classroom, Edmodo etc.)
- other interactive multimedia

*The mode of delivery will be agreed-upon by the Student and the Faculty.

Course Packs

Course packs will be available to all students in a course before the start of classes.

What is inside a COURSE PACK?

- A course guide with a detailed syllabus of the course
- Learning resources (e.g. readings, multimedia resources like video lectures, other content resources)
- Activity guides
- Assignment guides

The COURSE PACK will be in different formats:

- As online materials uploaded to the course site like UVLE
- As digital files in a flash drive/USB
- As printed materials to be sent via courier or other means

Things to remember:

Remote Learning is GUIDED INDEPENDENT LEARNING. You will learn independently but will still be guided by your professor/instructor.

Whatever type of learner you are,
you can participate in Remote Learning.

#Walang4ever:

Remote learning will keep you on track and make you ready to return to face-to-face classes.
